Based on the ideas in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures

Listening for direction...

Love inspires, illumines, designates and leads the way. Right motives give pinions to thought, and strength and freedom to speech and action.

Mary Baker Eddy
Science and Health, p. 454

And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

Bible, Isaiah 30:21

As God's children, we are not separate from God. And God constantly communicates with each one of us. We can always receive God's direction when we humbly, earnestly put Him first....

God has a clear-cut direction for each of us. If the way seems unclear, listen with every inch of your being, because God revealing His plan to you."

"Listening, as never before," Lynne Robinson
Christian Science Sentinel, 7/10/00

Wait patiently for divine Love to move upon the waters of mortal mind, and form the perfect concept.

Mary Baker Eddy
Science and Health,
p. 454

Spirit, God, is heard when the sense are silent."

Mary Baker Eddy
Science and Health, p. 89

Can you hear Me now??

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart;
and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Bible, Proverbs 3:5,6

You lean on the inert and unintelligent, never discerning how this deprives you of the available superiority of divine Mind.

Mary Baker Eddy
Science and Health, p. 143

Feeling confident about decision-making comes from listening for God's direction. The first step in listening is to shut out the clamor of all other thoughts and opinions, and turn to God. To me, turning to God involves thinking about who God is
and what that means for me, specifically. I have come to know God as the only Mind, always there, speaking to me and guiding me.

"Decisionmaking and the art of listening,"
Pamela Cook
Christian Science Journal, February 2003

God is everywhere.
"There is no speech
nor language where their voice is not heard;" and this voice is Truth that destroys error and Love that casts out fear.
