HOW TO MANAGE

ONES' TIME?
ONES' TIME?

TIME. Mortal measurements; limits, in which are summed up all human acts, thoughts, beliefs, opinions, knowledge; matter; error; that which begins before, and continues after, what is termed death, until the mortal disappears and spiritual perfection appears.

Mary Baker Eddy
Science & Health, p. 595 (Glossary)

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven.

Bible. Eccl 3:1

From "Deny delay", by Reginald Hayes
Christian Science Sentinel, 12/24/84

"Mathematical time is man made. Science and Health says, "Time is a mortal thought, the divisor of which is the solar year." (p.598) This human invention has no control over God or His man".

From "New light on time management" by Elaine Follis
Christian Science Sentinel, 7/1/2002

"But what, exactly, is time? In today's society, it is more than the ticks of a clock. Many people regard time as a scarce and valuable commodity, and so they seek to manage it by allotting it carefully and preserving as much of it as possible. But that approach doesn't guarantee that there will be enough time to do everything that is calling for attention.

If time is a "mortal measurement," one should manage it, not so much by challenging its authority to dictate how we should live and what we can do. This approach really is practical, and you'll feel a lot less tension in your life if you do it."

Improve Your Time

“Success in life depends upon persistent effort, upon the improvement of moments more than upon any other one thing. If one would be successful in the future, let him make the most of the present. Rushing around smartly is no proof of accomplishing much. All successful individuals have become such by hard work; by improving moments before they pass into hours, and hours that other people may occupy in the pursuit of pleasure.”

From Miscellaneous Writings, 229:28

“Life is without beginning and without end. Eternity, not time, expresses the thought of Life. Life, and time is no part of eternity. One ceases in proportion as the other is recognized. Time is finite: eternity is forever infinite.”

Mary Baker Eddy
Science and Health, p.468:25
(Chapter on Recapitulation)

From “Time not of the essence”
by Oswald Phillips
Christian Science Sentinel, 3/19/84

“Material conditions are not mandatory. They represent an erroneous concept of man and the universe, including the belief that time is of the essence and life is in matter, hence limited to a birth-growth-maturity-death cycle. The counter fact is that unchanging, spiritual universe including man, created and governed by divine Mind.”

...beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

Bible, II
Pet3:8

“Organization and time have nothing to do with Life.”
